

Hanley Boys Summer 2009 Top Ten Cool Things

10. Calder Dairy

We went to Calder Dairy this summer. It is the place where we get our milk. There are a lot of cows there. There is also a lot of manure. We got ice cream. An annoying sheep begged us for food. It was super-deliciously fun. Except for the poo.

9. Miyazaki films

Over the summer we watched Hayao Miyazaki movies. They were; Howl's Moving Castle, Naussica and the Valley of the Wind, Ponyo, Whisper of the Heart and Castle in the Sky. They were very good movies. We liked them a lot.

8. Walks With Dad

Over the summer, most days, one of us three boys took a walk with Dad. The schedule was: Jack every other day, Walter between Jack and Jack, and Charlie in between Jack and Jack. We usually went to Starbucks and got kids hot chocolates.

7. Candy stores

Over the summer we went to a lot of candy stores. We got three new candy stores. A Kilwins, a store called Candy Trail, and a store called Candylicious. They are all great stores so we went to them a lot.

6. Clamy

This summer Walter got his first laptop. He named it clamy. He really likes it. He used it on the road trip to play movies. It was an important part of his summer.

5. Tony's

A cool thing we did over the summer was we went to Tony's in Birch Run. We got a banana split the size of a tall coke. We knew it was big when someone asked to take a picture of it. It was extremely good.

4. Spongebob Week

This summer was the tenth anniversary of SpongeBob. We had a weeklong celebration. We had a scavenger hunt, made SpongeBob models and had SpongeBob mac and "cheese". Then, on the weekend, we watched the SpongeBob marathon. It was very fun.

3. Mini Cooper Road Trip

Over the summer we went on the 7th MINI Cooper road trip. It was the first four-man road trip. We went to a cool camper cabin at Interlochen State Park for one night and then went to Topinabee. We ate a lot of junk food. It was very fun.

2. Hell (MI)

We went to Hell, MI over the summer. It had Dead Lake near it. There was a dam there too. There was also mini golf and an ice cream parlor. It was fun and cool.

1. Interlochen

We went to Interlochen State Park for the third time. It was cold and cloudy most of the time, but we still had fun. We went to Suttons Bay and Elk Rapids while we were up there, that was very fun. It was very fun and cool.
